

Breathing In The Sun Part 1

You led me to the word of light
By your side I bowed, and I prayed for you
And praised your name
You called me, come know love gently
In my heart, I will always sing for you,
And live va bene

I've never dreamed of you, in some ways I don't want to
Maybe that's your way of being gentle with me
So easy to be brave when someone else feels all the pain
Breathing in the sun

I can find you, in where I can not find you
I can feel you, in where I can not feel you
I was someone long ago now I'm someone new without you
Breathing in the sun
