

I UNTO YOU

1ST VERSE

We waited aching for the battle to come
One war done we begin
To sow the seeds, reap all of our sins
Move into all we be..

1ST CHORUS

Come Against Us
We learn to divide and turn our faces aside
The flames of desire, rage higher and higher

2ND VERSE

Reach for the lights that blur out the lines and
Stretch on our sleek new hides
We've been living like moon shaped blades
Carving away at the ..

2ND CHORUS

Grand Old Meanings
And I'm finding it harder and harder
To follow the new gods and the new Loves

Under the beautiful trees
I unto you unto me
Two rivers meet at the sea
I unto you unto me
The same sun we all feel

3RD VERSE

The old men speak of a battle they fought
Near an ancient forest long ago
The ancient trees were burned and destroyed
When they return to it..

3RD CHORUS

Rises To Meet Them
On wings of a blue and gold
Come down to us today
That we might know the Love
That never dies

Under the beautiful trees
I unto you unto me
Two rivers meet at the sea
I unto you unto me
The same sun we all feel

OUTRO

Now we're here and we're not you
Words become the world
The air that changes earth
First a spark, and then a blaze
The silver slant of rain
The echo of the vain
Should we die to save the good we know
My good, your good...
He who slays and he who's slain
Lives life in purpose lives life in pain
Never falls upon us suddenly
Comes from all life for all life..
