

WARRIOR

1ST VERSE

Did darkness dream and touch you
Your insect shells, the ways of sin becomes you
Borne along the waves of perilous change

I can't leave
I watch you
Watch you grow inside of me

CHORUS

Warrior, you grow into those you oppose
Warrior, you take power for war and control

2ND VERSE

The Word became forgiveness
Your truth's revealed in broken glass and blood
Your spawning armies claim the unseen and unborn

Supple lies
Strange sunlight
Through the wire just to survive

2ND CHORUS

Warrior, you grow into those you oppose
Warrior, you take power for war and control
The world that lives in my mind
Is not in my eyes
Is there another, that's my brother

3RD VERSE

I saw a vision of us, of wounded futures
Reaping fields of mourning
We're head down heels up falling
And live for dying in the praise of others
While everyone's a journey
In every breath lets speak to Love and mercy
Move in human kindness, the light within us
Always to remind us..
